What Is Your Favorite Holiday Meal, Anna?
By Anna M.

For Thanksgiving and Christmas, we have almost the same meals.

For Thanksgiving we make stuffing to go with the turkey.

Except for Christmas, we have ham instead of turkey.

My mom taught me that it’s tradition to have these.

For sweet potatoes, my mom showed me how to make them a certain way.

We would boil them, slice them, add butter and bake them.

I don’t know if people eat sweet potatoes in Ireland.

I never heard about it until we came here.

My favorites are the turkey, mashed potatoes, and turnips.

For dessert we eat ice cream and walnut cake.

I love the holidays!! I think my favorite is Turkey!! You can have it at Christmas or Thanksgiving. What I love about having a good turkey is a great stuffing!!

I like a stuffing that is made with croutons and bread. We make the stuffing with ingredients like celery, onions, butter, parsley, sage, chicken broth, rosemary, and many more!! We stuff the whole turkey with it and pop it in the oven.

It makes for a good holiday meal and also tastes great!

My girls come home on Christmas Eve.
We have Christmas Eve dinner with my family.
We have lots of fish. We open presents with Rissy and Joey.
Christmas morning, we open presents with Kristina and Gina.
After, we all have bagels and lox.
Robert’s sisters and all the kids come over and we open more presents.
We eat dinner at 3:00. We have salad then pasta, eggplant, chicken, ham, green beans, and potatoes.
Later, we all have lots of dessert.

Christmas: Menu

Baked Brie with cranberries and walnuts

Turkey
Ham
Mashed potatoes
Cranberry sauce
Asparagus
Breads
Pumpkin, cherry, and apple pies

Mashed potatoes and cranberry sauce are the best!
The pies are also very good!

My Favorite Christmas Memory

Hello! My name is Rosetta and I am from Columbia, South Carolina, but I now live in Newark, NJ. I have 3 sons and 8 grandchildren.

One of my favorite memories growing up started when I was 3 years old and continued through my teen years. Growing up, every Christmas, my family would buy a real Christmas tree! It was huge. It reached the top of the ceiling and smelled like pine. My mom, sister and I always decorated the trees together every year. There were always many presents under the tree. My aunts and uncles would visit during the holiday season.

During my teen years, my mom bought an aluminum Christmas tree that came with a wheel of colors. The color wheel had blue, yellow, green and red and made the tree look beautiful. These Christmas trees always remind me of my joyful childhood memories.
